TORRES DEL PAINE - CHILE

Lodge Guide

TIERRA PATAGONIA

BECKONS

At a Glance

Location

Set within one of the world's great wilderness regions, Torres del Paine National Park is southern Patagonia at its most spectacular. A UNESCO Biosphere Reserve of 2,400 square kilometres, its dramatic terrain - shaped by ancient glacial forces - reveals turquoise lakes, sprawling pampas, granite towers and pristine forests. Trails weave through this extraordinary landscape, offering close encounters with guanacos, condors, pumas and rheas. It is a true bucket-list destination, inviting exploration, discovery and a deep connection with nature.

Getting Here

Tierra Patagonia is located in the south of Chile neighboring Torres del Paine National Park. Daily 2.5 hour flights operate between Santiago and Puerto Natales, the most convenient gateway to the lodge. Tierra Patagonia offers complimentary shared road transfers from Puerto Natales Airport to the lodge included in the rates. Transfers to or from Punta Arenas and El Calafate (in Argentina) are available at an additional cost. More details »

Climate

Patagonia is defined by its ever-changing climate, where sun, cloud and powerful winds can transform the landscape within moments. Cool temperatures prevail throughout the year, creating crisp, clear days and dramatic light. Each season offers a distinct perspective on the wild beauty surrounding Tierra Patagonia. Tierra Patagonia welcomes guests during the region's warmer months from October to early May each year and closes for the winter season.

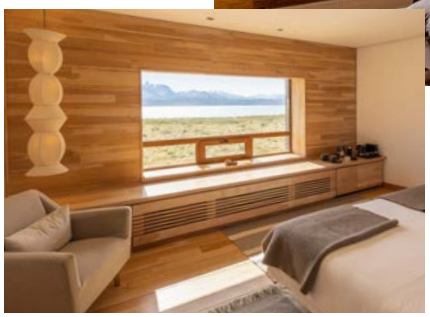

Season	Average daytime temp	Average overnight temp
Spring (Sept-Nov)	2-18°C (36-64°F)	3-7°C (37-45°F)
Summer (Dec-Feb)	5-22°C (41-72°F)	6-8°C (43-46°F)
Fall (Mar-May)	0-10°C (32-50°F)	-3-0°C (27-32°F)

Stay

Accommodation

Tierra Patagonia's forty guest rooms honour the natural world with a soothing palette of wood, wool and leather, accented by works from local artisans. Contemporary yet deeply connected to place, the interiors frame sweeping views of pampa, lake and peaks. Here, shifting light and weather invite guests to unwind, disconnect and settle into Patagonia's quiet rhythm.

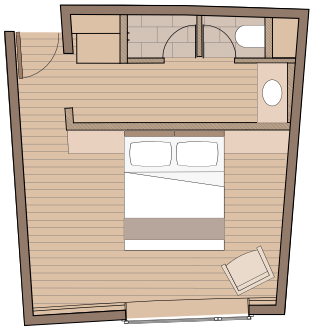

All rooms offer king or twin bedding and a generous ensuite bathroom appointed with premium spa amenities. Other features include a complimentary in-room bar with tea and coffee provisions, central heating, wireless internet, safe and telephone. Bathrobes, slippers, hairdryer and backpacks are provided along with daily housekeeping and signature evening turndown service.

Check-In / Check-Out
Check-in time is 3pm and check-out time is 11am. Where possible, flexibility with early check-in and late check-out will be provided, in the meantime guests are welcome to enjoy the lodge's guest spaces including the restaurant and lounge areas.

Children
Tierra Patagonia welcomes children ten years of age and over.

Standard Room

A welcoming haven after days in the Patagonian wilds, the Standard Room blends contemporary design with artisan accents and sweeping views of Torres del Paine. The light-filled bedroom is configured with king or twin beds, while an in-room bar stocked with drinks and snacks and generous lenga-wood lined bathroom with walk-in rain shower invite relaxed, end-of-day indulgence.

Lodge

Restaurant

With panoramic windows revealing Patagonia's ever-changing moods, the restaurant invites guests to dine against a backdrop of dramatic light, weather and wildlife. Inside, a sweeping lenga-wood ceiling and gentle lighting create a cocooning warmth. The menu reimagines traditional recipes through contemporary expression, showcasing fresh, regional ingredients from neighbouring estancias.

Lounge & Bar

At the heart of the lodge, the lounge and sweeping bar create a naturally social setting as guests swap stories of Patagonian adventures. Warm wood panelling, artisan furnishings and the fireplace invite relaxed lounging throughout the day. As darkness falls, the space takes on a gentle radiance, mirroring the twinkling southern skies beyond the windows.

Adventure Hub

A natural meeting place for exploration, the Adventure Hub shapes each day's experiences in Patagonia. Guests gather with expert guides to trace routes across regional maps, surrounded by shelves of books, trail charts and found objects - weathered stones, fossils and artefacts that mirror the raw spirit of Torres del Paine.

Uma Spa

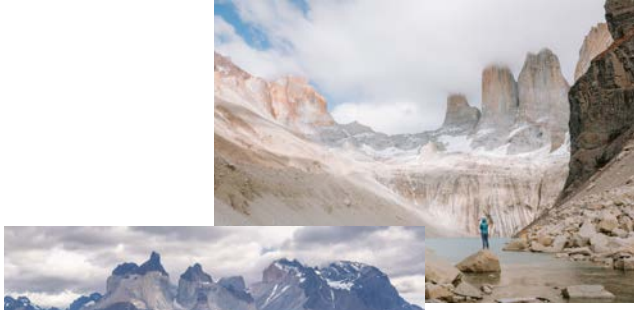

Named for the Aymara word for water, Uma Spa offers a restorative sanctuary in the heart of Patagonia. Expansive windows surround the infinity-edge pool, revealing uninterrupted views by day and night. Facilities include three treatment rooms, sauna, steam room, gym and yoga studio while an open-air whirlpool enhances the experience.

What's Included

- All dining and open bar including house wines and spirits
- Two half day signature excursions or one full day signature excursion daily
- Transfers to/from Puerto Natales Airport connecting with scheduled flights
