BECKONS™

To stay with Beckons is to experience destinations of unique natural and cultural significance, contemporary architectural design which welcomes the outside in, world-class local dining and beverages and first-name service.

The overall sense is one of generous hospitality, of easy, relaxed luxury and of seemingly effortless attention to detail. Our lodge teams are closely intertwined with the local communities in which each lodge is located, and are a natural fit as concierge, connecting guests with personalised experiences to create an unforgettable event.

Beckons can accommodate exclusive and intimate group events at selected lodges in Australia, including Longitude 131° at Uluṟu-Kata Tjuṯa, Silky Oaks Lodge in the Daintree Rainforest, Southern Ocean Lodge on Kangaroo Island and The Louise in the Barossa Valley.

Beckons offers guests an unforgettable sense of place, a celebration of its natural wonders and a generous welcome home.

For a quick overview of capacity, inclusions and facilities across the lodges, view our reference guides and submit your event inquiry online or call us on +61 2 9918 4355 to discuss your requirements.

LONGITUDE 131°
BECKONS

Rock Star

With views direct to Uluṟu and across the desert to Kata Tjuṯa, Longitude 131° is Australia's most celebrated luxury camp. Dotted among the red-rust dunes of the Central Desert, sixteen tented pavilions offer connection with the outback landscape and its heritage as well as a glamorous base from which to explore the incredible Red Centre.

MEMBER OF
LUXURY LODGES
OF AUSTRALIA

Deep in Australia's heartland at Uluṟu-Kata Tjuṯa, Longitude 131° specialises in extraordinary intimate group travel experiences. Whether celebrating a significant milestone or creating a reward incentive program, Longitude 131° will deliver an unforgettable event that will be remembered forever.

Sitting amidst ancient dunes and overlooking Australia's best-known natural icon, Uluṟu, Longitude 131° is a gathering of sixteen tented pavilions including the premium two-bedroom Dune Pavilion, offering connection with the outback landscape and its heritage as well as a glamorous base from which to explore the incredible Red Centre. Unparalleled views of Uluṟu's changing lights play out from the end of the bed, or on balconies from the warmth of a luxury swag unfurled in the cool night air.

Adventures in the Red Centre include guided hikes, scenic flights, camel tours, cultural experiences and witnessing the incredible Field of Light art installation at dusk. After long days exploring, the on-site Spa Kinara offers soothing therapies.

Longitude 131° offers unique spaces for group events and incentives. Dining at Longitude 131° sees a creative, contemporary Australian menu enjoyed with a view to Uluṟu. Artfully mixed with the flavours and stories of the land's ancient culture, guests are treated to a unique taste of Australia. Dinner is enjoyed in the Dune House and under the stars at Table 131° on alternating days. For small intimate groups dining can be enjoyed on the Dune Top, where intimate pods offer a window to the outback after dark.

DINING COCKTAIL

1 Dune House

36 36

The Dune House, with its panoramic views of the outback and soaring canopy is the hub of Longitude 131°. The welcome open spaces within include a restaurant and bar with ever-changing views of Uluṟu as a backdrop for dining as well as lounging areas in contemporary campaign style, ideal for relaxing with an icy drink and exchanging stories of the day's adventures in the outback. Local Aboriginal artworks create a vibrant space, ideal for planning the next adventure.

2 Table 131°

36

Set among the dunes at a secret location, Table 131° is a hallmark event at Longitude 131°. The southern skies over Uluṟu-Kata Tjuṯa are a glittering kaleidoscope of stars, with cool, clear nights and an absence of manufactured lights from cities or nearby dwellings creating a stargazer's paradise. Table 131° is renowned around the world as an iconic outdoor dining experience, with a menu prepared on a remote dune top and served under a blanket of stars. The feeling of being in a natural theatre is heightened by the chefs who work by torchlight to present four sumptuous courses.

3 Dune Top & Dining Pods

12 20

Perched high on the outback landscape, the Dune Top is an intimate space comprising a help-yourself bar, outdoor lounges and plunge spa with views to both World Heritage-listed natural icons Uluṟu and Kata Tjuṯa. Private dining pods offer a window to the flush of dusk in time for an intimate dinner under the stars. Pods are suites for small groups of up to 12 guests seated on separate dining pods.

SILKY OAKS LODGE
BECKONS

Daintree Deity

Located in the cool calm of the Daintree Rainforest in Queensland's tropical north, Silky Oaks Lodge offers a stylish escape for business or leisure events whether for a premium corporate incentive, an executive meeting, or special interest retreat.

MEMBER OF
LUXURY LODGES
OF AUSTRALIA

A tranquil hideaway for relaxation and rejuvenation, Silky Oaks Lodge offers easy access to the tropical wonders of the World Heritage-listed Great Barrier Reef, Daintree Rainforest, Mossman Gorge and Cape Tribulation.

Nestled in the cool calm of the Daintree Rainforest, Silky Oaks Lodge is set above the gently flowing Mossman River and among the leafy canopy, with the airy, open spaces of the main lodge enveloping guests in the sights and sounds of an extraordinary natural theatre. Boasting 40 luxury treehouse-style suites, the lodge offers refined luxury accommodation for up to 82 guests, including the exclusive two-bedroom Daintree Pavilion with multiple living spaces and an infinity pool. Interiors flow seamlessly to the outdoors with verandahs dotted with swaying hammocks, open-air showers and deep stone bathtubs.

Adventures abound in the region, and the Silky Oaks Lodge team is ready to connect guests with unforgettable experiences from rainforest to reef. The serene on-site Healing Waters Spa beckons too, with luxurious and restorative treatments on offer.

Silky Oaks Lodge offers customisable spaces for celebratory events and special occasions, or a stimulating environment for business meetings and conferences. Dining at the lodge celebrates the abundance of fresh ingredients harvested both on-site and in the wider tropical north.

SOUTHERN OCEAN LODGE
BECKONS

Coastal Glamour

With signature curved lines that echo the ocean-front location and sweeping panoramic views, Southern Ocean Lodge blends effortlessly with the rugged beauty of Kangaroo Island, welcoming guests to a luxurious base for wilderness exploration, superb regional cuisine and remarkable experiences.

For those passionate about retreating for a premium corporate incentive, exclusive meeting or celebratory event in an incredible location, Southern Ocean Lodge delivers an extraordinary experience of Kangaroo Island, widely acclaimed as Australia's Galapagos.

Southern Ocean Lodge sets the enduring benchmark for luxury experiential travel in Australia. Sensitively designed to blend seamlessly into the landscape, the lodge appears to float along its secluded clifftop setting. Twenty-five contemporary suites enjoy open views of the Southern Ocean and dramatic coastal wilderness, including the ultra-premium Baillie Pavilion. The expansive Great Room lies at the helm of the lodge and is the hub of all activity, with floor to ceiling windows capturing panoramic views of the wild Southern Ocean thundering below. Outside, a wet-edge pool lines the lodge terrace inviting a plunge into the landscape.

There are endless possibilities for exploring Kangaroo Island. Wander amongst sea lions lolling in the sand dunes, discover the famed Remarkable Rocks, walk along the coastal clifftops or enjoy a close encounter with native wildlife. The on-site Southern Spa beckons with signature treatments, a sauna and gymnasium while outside on the terrace hot and cold plunge pools are perfect for a soak.

Southern Ocean Lodge offers a unique backdrop for exclusive use and non-exclusive use groups. Dining at the lodge is an exclusively local affair, with a bounty of premium ingredients for the kitchen's dynamic, produce-driven menus.

DINING COCKTAIL BOARDROOM

1 Great Room

60

The expansive Great Room lies at the helm of the lodge and is the hub of all activity, from lounging with a book with panoramic views of the Southern Ocean, to sharing a drink at the open bar and planning the next day's adventures. Especially at sunset, guests gather around the Great Room's open bar, which offers premium wines, craft beers and top shelf spirits. Staff are on-hand to assist with mixing a cocktail or making a suggestion, and sunset drinks are served each evening to allow guests to mingle and share the day's discoveries.

2 Restaurant
